

I, Jeanne Bakken, do hereby will to Sharon Jaeger, a bigger, brand new softball glove, so that there won't be any excuse for missing the easy ones. Also to Sharon, the ability to learn how to make a left-handed lay-up, seeing how neither of us could master it this year, and to my favorite P.E. teacher, Mr. Juhl, a brand new ink pen, for sending out down-letters.

I, Rhonda Banwart, do hereby will Mr. Hoodjer the ability to say what he wants done in fourth hour study hall instead of writing it on the black board. We really don't bite! Also I will to Kenny Schuneman, my orange P.E. uniform. You better wear it, Kenny.

I, Tom Barton, will to Mike Jacobson, a ~~book~~ so now you may remove that ~~book~~ that's been making you walk so funny all this time.

I, Amy Baugous, being of unsound mind and inflated body will my ability to sleep in Government class to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Mike Behounek, will my ability to skip school to Rod Christopher! Or is it the other way around??!!

I, Jan Berte, being of straight hair and short body, will my ability to talk to the birds, to Kim, maybe you'll be able to tell what your parakeet wants now, and to Annette, the ability to find the right bus in Des Moines, next time, check out the name.

I, Deb Carlson, being on "no" mind and short body will my ability to miss three freethrows in a row to next year's basketball forwards---never fear, a few extra windsprints never hurt anyone!! To Cindy Struthers and Ann Berte goes my P.E. padlock because they're the only ones who can figure out the combination.

I, Deb Collins, will to Ann Berte and Brenda Christopher my ability to drive FAST down Julius' bumpy lane and still manage to keep control of the car tha wasn't even mine. Maybe you can learn to LOOK at your fields before you decide to walk them.

I, Brent Foth, being of unsound mind and deformed body, will the ability to all underclassmen to get out of any class, at any time, for anything, and the ability to come to school everyday at 9:30. Also the ability to get into locked locker-rooms.

I, Connie Frederiksen, being of a somewhat sound mind and a questionable body, do hereby will Linda Olson my brother's trailer house. She always did want a place of her own without having to worry about getting supper for every-one else, and to next years senior girls the ability to get along with each other. And last of all I will to my family the ability to get along without me, which probably won't be too hard of a job.

I, Harry Haack will the underclassmen my ability to get a word in edgewise in Mrs. Warren's class.

I, Virg Hacker, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my bodily attributes to David Higgins, sothat he may improve on his "activity bus" behavior. Also I will a dictionary so you can figure out what I said.

I, Ron Hankins, being of sound mind and short body, hereby will the following: My ability to sit still for at least five minutes to Doug Olson, a quart of paint to Mr. Schoonbeck so he can paint the Berlin Wall any color but black, my advice not to take Senior English to anyone who will take it, my supply of belts to Russell Miller, and my ability to laugh somewhat quietly to Mrs. Warren.

I, Dan Hansell, being of sound mind and body will to my sister the patience to stick it out for two more years.

I, Lori Helvick, do hereby will Sharon Jaeger my ability to make fantastic looking cones, my ~~bed~~ to the wrestlers because thats probably all the support they'll get around this ~~year~~ and to certain freshmen infant boys the ability to grow up and act their ages!!!

I, Richard Hoversten, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeth to any boy with three sisters, my ability to get into the bathroom between 6:30 and 8:00 in the morning. Why did they ever invent make-up?? Also I will to Mom a tape recording of my responses to "Be Careful" and "Don't be late" so she won't feel so lost next year.

will to any next

I, Kirk Hundtermark, being of bewildered mind and strong body, do hereby will to any next year Bookkeeping student my ability to always get my jobs done on time and be able to remain quiet and not disturb the rest of the class. Also I will my ability to get the newspaper out on time to Brenda Christopher.

I, Steve Jones, do hereby bequeath to Sharon Jaeger my ability to get a down-letter in first hour study hall along with my ability to act like I own the place. With all that you will really be scholarly.

I, Jolene Mary Johnson, being of nothing, do whatever will this school to anyone who wants it. And my ability to get into trouble.

I, Scott Johnson, being of unsound mind, and disabled body will a pair of roller skates to Mr. Juhl, maybe then he would get around a little faster. I also will to Ken and Dale my ability to run laps in football, because next fall you're not going to be in too good of shape.

I, Terry Johnson, made of a black and blue eye, and weak bones, will my ability to meet things head on to Mike Thul and my ability to find Rutland to David Higgins so you won't have to stop and ask directions.

I, Kim (Christiansen) Kiley, do hereby will the following: To Karen Mitsven the ability to work her ape swing into a cheer for next year. My ability not to stare at people to a certain few underclassmen who weren't taught staring is impolite.

I, Rich Kinseth, being of crazy mind and crippled body do hereby will my ability to dribble left-handed without looking at the ball and my ability to shoot lay-ups to the girls basketball team, remember, girls, do it like the coach wants. I also will to any underclassman foot player, who has the desire to get out of agility drills, especially the monkey roll, my hurt finger, that always needed taping at this time during practice. And to automotive science, I will my car the F.B.C., maybe they can find out what's the matter with it.

I, Greg Lempe, being of no mind and squirrely body, will to Dora, my two rolls of towels, 4 P.E. uniforms, 6 P.E. bags, and 2 laundry bags that have somehow accumulated over my past years in high school. To Frank Hacker, a years supply of hamburgers at MacDonalds, so he won't have to eat tree limbs, bus seats, and rocks to satisfy his appetite.

I, Duane Matheson, being of disorganized mind and deprived body will my official KKDI membership card to anyone who can keep up the tradition and my typing abilities to Ken, Mike and Dale.

I, Lucy McKibban, being of no mind and like-wise body will my ability to forget about things till the last minute and do a bad job on it - like this will to any junior.

I, Ruth Monson, being on unstable mind, and weak body will the following: to next years basketball managers, I leave the cage (Good Luck), to Sharon Jaeger, I leave the "Hot Dodge" so Columbo won't be lonesome.

I, Jody Olson, being of sound mind (hopefully) and somewhat sound body, do hereby will and decree my job at this school to anyone who is dumb enough to take it. To my brother Doug, I give some of my limited coordination so that he can at least walk right.

I, Linda Olson, being of questionable mind and body, will to Jennifer Watnem, alias "Kneecap" some of my height so that the next time the gargage can gets dumped on her head we can see more than just her feet, and I also will to Doug the ability to sit down and shut up for five minutes in the library.

I, Vicki Portwood, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my pet, Br.VV to B.A.D.

I, Rhoda Rongved, being of crazy mind, will all my excuses to get out of school to Barb Denory.

I, Madge Salmon, will my ability to act in the Senior Class Play to the upcoming Senior Class. It's alot of fun, and the costumes (especially cotton stockings) are a barrel of laughs.

I, Don Schuneman, do hereby will my fantastic brain to the biology class.

Its extremely unique because it runs a duck and a dunce's body. And to my brother Ken, my sound mind and body and my ability to go out for basketball and wrestling and not be good at either.

I, Terry Smith, being of sound mind and body will a speed reading course to any Junior taking senior English, next year. That way you won't have to do English on the senior trip. And to Mrs. Enfield, I will the Junior Class. If you think Scott and I were rowdy, wait till next year.

I, Marge Stalzer, being of sound mind and body do hereby will to Shari Olson and Susie Gales my patience and ability to be manager of the varsity girls basketball team and be able to put up with all their wishes and desires. (Who knows maybe next year won't be quite as bad for you.)

I, Penny Taylor, being of blown mind and burnt out body do hereby will the following; to Sue my ability to come up with good excuses and to hide from certain people anywhere or anytime. And to Robbie my head in hopes his will feel as good as mine did this year. And to brother Mike, my job!!! Try wrecking 3 pairs of jeans and a jacket and see how you feel.

I, Mike Terwilleger will my ability to teach to all the teachers, so maybe somebody would be abrain at T.R. besides me.

I, Bruce Thatcher, will my ability to not stick my finger in a light socket to Annette Maasen and Candy Helland, and to Raymond Christainson, I will Susan Alexander, now that I'll be gone you can pick on her all by yourself.

I, Lori Thul, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to any freshmen, sophomore or junior my ability to earn a down letter in, and nearly flunk 1st hour study hall, and to Nancy Telford my little blue car for future excursions to Algona. With a full tank you'll probably be able to make 2,750 round trips. And to my little brother, I will my long hair because his is usually cut in the latest "skinner" style.

I, Steve Waechter, being of questionable mind and body do will to Dapper D my faltering brain (which isn't much but every little bit helps). I also will my Blue 63' Pontiac to Greg Lempke so he'll have something other than a Canaro to drive. And to anyone who needs it my ability to use Chiesel plowing as an excuse to miss school; even if its December 16th.

I, Jennifer Wood, being of fat face and strizzly hair, will to Paul H. an abandoned house and the contents of my basketball locker to Sharon Jaeger.

I, Brian Zeman, being of no mind and deteriorated body will my ability to keep their food on their plate to Thersa B.
